Maesai, the most northern part of Siam on Thai-Myanma border, is one of the exotic resorts of Thailand. This picturesque region of valleys, forest, river, fog, ancient temples and hill tribe, all forms up the crown of Thailand. The graceful jewel embellished on the crown is Wang Thong Hotel Maesai.

This only five-star hotel in Maesai is located on Maesai River's bank, opposite to Ta Kea Lek of Myanma which is famous for its jades, sapphires and handicrafts.

Wang Thong Hotel yet possesses a unique location, is conveniently close to exotic sights and scenes of Golden Triangle and Phra That Doi Tung which is respected by Thais, Laos and Myanmese. In additional, Doi Mae Salong is another interesting place located in Maesai with cherry blossoms all through the months of December to February.
